EP To Be Released on: PHANTOM RECORDS

INDEPENDENT RECORDING ARTIST: "Aeleth."

Introduction

Natalee Treviño is a licensed full-time dentist and a part-time recording artist whose healing touch extends beyond the dental chair and into the heart of music. With a voice shaped by compassion and a message grounded in faith, she offers a unique dual calling: to mend smiles and lift spirits. As she balances her clinical expertise with her artistic gift, Natalee brings grace, professionalism, and sincerity to everything she does — inspiring others through both science and song.

Healing and Harmony

Drawing from her daily experiences in dentistry, Natalee infuses her music with purpose and presence. Her songs are not designed for the spotlight but for the soul — quiet, thoughtful, and soothing. She describes her music as “a second language of healing,” one that reaches those whose pain isn't visible, whose burdens are emotional or spiritual. Rooted in her Christian faith and shaped by Latin warmth and acoustic soul, her sound evokes stillness, strength, and restoration. Listeners often describe her music as calming and therapeutic, a rare genre she embraces as “healing music.”

Her journey into music began as a form of quiet self-expression. Over time, she realized her voice could uplift more than just those closest to her — it could offer comfort to anyone searching for peace. Now, she blends her calling as a healthcare professional with her identity as a healing artist. Her songs do not seek fame, but rather to create space for reflection, prayer, and emotional wellness in a world that rarely pauses.

Both of Her Professions

In both her professions, Natalee Treviño (San Antonio, Texas) shows what it means to serve others with humility and integrity. Her upcoming EP, released on Phantom Records (Gaithersburg, Maryland), is a collection of songs born from the intersection of duty and devotion — an artist's gift wrapped in the heart of a healer. Through every patient she treats and every note she sings, she remains centered in the belief that true healing is personal, spiritual, and complete.
